

The INCM mourns the passing of Luiz Francisco Rebello

The INCM mourns the passing of Luiz Francisco Rebello, lawyer, playwright and theatre critic. This figure who left his mark on 20th century Portuguese culture has left us at 87 years of age.

The author of more than 20 plays, which are compiled in two volumes published by the INCM, Luiz Francisco Rebello was also noted as a theatre critic, essayist and historian. He was a member of the Portuguese Association of Theatre Critics, an institution that he helped to create.

A Law graduate from the Lisbon Faculty of Law, Luiz Francisco Rebello often put his legal knowledge and civic sense of duty at the service of the defence of authors' rights. He was president of the Portuguese Society of Authors for 30 years.

8 December 2011